MEMORANDUM FOR: Recipients of Director's Daily Journal

SUBJECT : Value and Control of DDJ

DD/A REGISTRY

FILE: Security - 4

1. I have not yet briefed Admiral Inman or Mr. Casey on the existence or value of the Director's Daily Journal (DDJ). DCI Colby asked me to create the Journal as a convenience to him and a service to you in terms of letting the left hand know what the right is up to -- a modest effort to let gentlemen read the mail of others and bite into the coordination as appropriate. He asked that it be treated with care equivalent to the PDB. I know of no case where this service has been abused. Admiral Turner focused on the DDJ and I was able to satisfy his concerns by my Note on each Journal.

2. Before I am called upon to confirm its value to Admiral Inman and Mr. Casey, it is requested that you:

- 1) Reinforce the practice of no reproduction. (It can be read by those you judge appropriate in your immediate office.)
- 2) Have someone phone Chris or myself commenting on its value.

3. Abuses real or imagined are apt to "kill the goose that lays the golden egg;" but I'm out of date in terms of what importance you attach to this daily production.
